

The employees are our success

HASSELMANN

The Hasselmann Group, headquartered in Berka/Werra, is a construction company specialising in railway construction, municipal construction and civil engineering with more than 270 highly qualified employees.

Become part of the team and help shape our future! For our headquarters in Berka/Werra, we are looking for a professionally and humanly convincing personality at the earliest possible time.

- Electricians
- Electricians as foreman
- Electricians as master

Your tasks:

- Carrying out electrical installations for power supply and lighting at Deutsche Bahn's transport stations
- Installation and repair of electrical equipment (e.g. Turnout heating systems 16.7Hz/ 50Hz, track field lighting and grounding systems)
- Compliance with safety, accident prevention and Environmental protection

Our requirements:

- Completed electrotechnical vocational training or comparable financial statements
- Flexibility and willingness to install
- Car driving licence

Our offer:

- Interesting and varied activity
- Open working climate with flat hierarchies
- A modern, safe and long-term job
- Performance-based remuneration according to Tariff
- Various training opportunities

Have we aroused your interest?

Then we look forward to your complete application documents with your salary expectations and your availability by e-mail or by post to: